INSTRUCTIONS

TRADEMARK OR SERVICE MARK APPLICATION

1. Give the name of the person (or business entity) who will own the mark.
Give the address and phone number for the owner of the mark.
If the owner of the mark is a business entity, you must name the state in which the business entity was registered, (i.e. U.S.A.R., etc.)
2. Indicate if the mark is a trademark or a service mark. A trademark is the brand name of a manufactured product and a service mark is a name used to advertise the service offered by a business.
3. Refer to the classification numbers for the product or service on this information page. Name the class number for your product or service. Example: Class 29 for processed foods, a product; or Class 42 for retail sales, a service. Numbers 1–34 are trademark and 35–42 are service mark. Choose only one number per application.
4. Name the specific product or specific service offered by the person or corporation. If the mark is the brand name for a manufactured product, name that product, i.e. pizza, ladies clothing. If it is a device used to advertise services, you should name the service you offer, i.e. retail sales services or restaurant services.
5. Tell how you use the mark to advertise your product or service. Example: label on the product or on stationery associated with the service.
6. Give the date you first used the mark anywhere and the date it was first used in U.S.A.R. No mark can be registered in this state until the mark is used in this state and the product or service is available in this state.
7. Describe the mark you are seeking to register. You should describe the colors and the most distinctive part of the mark.
8. This is the sworn statement of the owner. Type the name of the owner in this blank and the owner of the mark must sign on the signature line. The individual signing for a business entity should give his/her title beside the signature.
